Law Practice:

Andy is the Chair of the firm's construction practice group and a former managing partner of the firm. His practice focuses on providing advice and counsel to contractors, developers, architects, and engineers, litigating construction defect disputes, and construction related professional negligence claims. He also has significant experience in defending personal injury, products liability, environmental, and premises liability litigation.

Education & Bar Admissions:

Andy earned a bachelor's degree in economics at the University of Oregon in 1983 and his law degree from Northwestern School of Law, Lewis & Clark College in 1987.

Andy was admitted to the Oregon State Bar and United States District Court for Oregon in 1988. In 2011, he was admitted to the Washington State Bar.
