Law Practice:

As an attorney, Josh focuses his practice on OSHA guidelines, compliance, litigation, and assisting employers in Oregon and Washington in all aspects of safety and health regulation. Additionally Josh works closely with the firm's litigation group on a wide range of issues, including personal injury, employment, construction and business disputes.

Prior to joining the firm, Josh represented insurers and self-insured employers in Oregon and Washington regarding administrative law matters, including workers' compensation and OSHA.

After law school, Josh served as a Federal Law Clerk for the Honorable Bernard G. Skomal of the United States District Court, Southern District of California.

Personal:

Josh moved to Oregon from San Diego in 2014 with his wife, and native Oregonian, Kristin. Since then, Josh uses his free time to experience everything that the Pacific Northwest has to offer, including trips to the coast and hikes in the gorge with his wife and their son, Morrie. Josh also enjoys playing golf, snowboarding, and watching his favorite baseball team, the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Josh's wife is also a former City Councilor of Lake Oswego, so they both remain actively involved in the community, including the annual Lake Oswego Festival of the Arts.
